“ it's been 21 days since i last felt ur touch, been 504 hrs since i last heard u speak to me, and as every minute and every second pass i miss u more than ever. i miss seeing u in school. miss hearing ur laugh. i don't know how to feel anymore, i feel remorse more and more each day for not being able to be there for u, and for not being able to tell u i'm here. i know u see what i'm doing for u. i miss u and love u & forever long live u baby boy u are a strong soldier, u have the bravest soul, you have the kindest heart, and i will forever be great full for letting me experience ur presence on earth. see u soon

“ You'll always be someone I remember, because NEVER were you rude always smiling and spreading good vibes. You always shared even if it wasn't much, always thinking about others before you thought of yourself. I miss you, but I know you're doing much better. I sometimes look up at the sky and imagine you smiling and being goofy like always. We've all have to stay strong for you and your family. You'll never be forgotten nor replaced from our lives. Much love goes to your family and girlfriend

“ Damn Toni I miss you. I think about you everyday. Like fr. I jus be in the car like damn Toni I jus saw you. I miss you. Muchooo. I still can't process this. It jus feels so unreal. It broke me so much to hear you left us. But you'll never be forgotten, on everything you won't. Scarred each one of us, never in a bad way. But this here yeah this shit hurt .But you had your reasons Toni. No one will judge you for them. Just know we all love you, know that I love you and miss you & forever will. Protect us from above like U always would . rip. Te extraño. - ivonne

“Damn bro this still does not feel real but I know your in a better place now, you always knew how to make someone laugh and that’s what I liked about you. Thank you for all the memories, From always goofing around in class to hanging out. It pains me to let it be like this but you are forever with me. Watch over not only me but those who loved and cared for you. #LLT

“ I keep wondering how you’re doing and it sucks. what i do know is that you’re in a better place now. I just want to say you are and you’ll always be a real friend not only to me but to many. you’ll be missed but never forgotten, you left us with so many memories and i still see you smiling. thank you for existing and being a person who was always there to talk to even when you didn’t have to, i truly do appreciate every moment we shared like getting caught leaving campus even though out of all 3 of us who were in that conference room you were the only one that didn’t get suspended i’m glad we were friends and i’ll forever keep those memories in my heart long live you i hope you are at peace

“ The impact you left on my life I will never forget. You taught me to change what you want to be and to not be something others see you as. You never showed weakness. We would smoke, hangout, cause a ruckus. You always put a smile on my face and gave me advice when there was no one to talk to. I could always rely on you. Even now I know your here with us. Your Loyalty and Friendship was never questioned and still isn't. Thank you Antonio. What you have provided could never be repaid.

“ What i miss most is the long nights we would play Gta and minecraft and stay up just talking bout how school was going and what was going on, remember i would stay home because i hated school you would always be the one person on with either johnny or someone else and just crack jokes, you definitely had us all in a better mood and thats what we all miss most, that uplifting attitude that you brought to the table
