“ Posted by: Sandi Krick Dearest Dr. Dodder and Family, Our thoughts and prayers are with you during this sad time. May all of your happy memories comfort you. Sandi & Lenny 08/05/2009 Posted by: D Richmond Please accept my deepest sympathy. There is a wonderful hope in the Bible of a time where our dead loved ones will come back to life on a paradise earth. (John 5:28,29.Luke 23:43) 08/05/2009 Posted by: Janice Hubbard Barfield I will always remember Cynthia as being such a good friend to my sister Cheryl. Ya'll lived behind my parents, The Hubbards. I am so sorry and I know you all will miss her 08/05/2009 Posted by: Michael Hegeman James & Michelle, It is difficult to put into words the joy that Cynthia brought into my life and my children's. She always had a way to make us laugh and smile. God Bless. Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit as it was in the beginning is now and ever shall be world without end. Amen 08/05/2009 Posted by: Donna Bullett Dear Dr. Dodder, You and your family have my deepest sympathy. May God keep you strong through this difficult time. Hold on to your memories of her, they will keep her with you forever. 08/05/2009 Posted by: Shane and Mandy Ecclaiastes 3: 1-8 To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance; A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing; A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away; A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak; A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace. I call this is the Valley, the literal "Shadow of Death." Take each moment as it comes and trust that God's Love and Grace will bring you through this. You may not feel it tomorrow, or this time next week. There is no "sudden healing" of grief in our hearts. But as the days pass, I hope that you keep the Light, Cynthia's Light, and her love that touched our lives so deeply. She is not gone, as she remains part of the Eternal Light of our Lord. Cynthia lives on through Him and in the lives and hearts of each of us. May you find the courage to face the days ahead in the love that surrounds you today. Love, Shane and Mandy 08/05/2009 Posted by: Aaron Martin My condolences to the Shelnuttt & Patterson families at this difficult time, and I'm truly sorry for your loss. Aaron 08/05/2009 Posted by: JUNE GRIZZLE I love ya'll so much and I pray each day for God to ease your pain. I know nothing will ever be the same, so just hold on to one another and God will see ya'll through. love JUNE & DAVID 08/05/2009 Posted by: Joanne Toenshoff My heart is very heavy right now for your whole family. The loss of a loved one I have felt and know the saddness you all must be feeling. Even though I can not be there my thoughts and prayers will be with your whole family. God Bless 08/05/2009 Posted by: Wade Shepherd I am so sorry for your loss. My thoughts are with you and your family. What moves through you is a silence, a quiet sadness, a longing for one more day, one more word, one more touch, you may not understand why she left this earth so soon, or why she left before you were ready to say good-bye, but little by little, you must remember not just that she died, but that she lived. And that her life gave you memories too beautiful to forget.May the comfort of God help you during this difficult time. Wade Shepherd 08/04/2009
