“ Posted by: Cheri Ann Kemp Williams I saw you pass away and my heart just broke in half. You were the sweetest brother anybody could ever ask for. You saved my life twice and I'll never forget those days. When you were growing up you were so quiet but also so funny. We laughed a lot and had a special bond. I miss you so. When it's my time to go, I believe that you will be the first to reach down and help lift me up into heaven, into the brightest of lights to walk me through the long line of loved ones waiting for me. Your life was too short, you didn't even get to enjoy the retirement you so richly deserved. Pam is so lonely and your beautiful children and grandchildren miss you. There's only two of us left here on this earth and I pray that we get to finish the job that God put us here to do. I don't believe that you got to complete your assignment, but maybe you did. We will never know. I love you still, David, and pray for your beloved wife and children daily. Rest in peace, brother. 11/23/2010

Posted by: Marie Toler It's been over a year since you took your last breath. I miss you Daddy! Please know that you have always been loved. 11/09/2010

Posted by: Diana My prayers go out to you and your family as you mourn your loss. In the Bible, Jesus compared death to sleep because one day he will call out to all who are dead and they will rise to live in the paradise God intended the earth to be. Losing a loved one isn't easy, but I pray for you that you will keep in your heart the hope of seeing your loved one again one day and that this will bring you comfort. (John: chapter 11; John 5:28,29; Revelation 21:3,4.) 11/29/2009

Posted by: Cheri Ann Kemp Williams Dearest Davida, Allen, Sonja, Marie, and Pam, I am so sorry for the loss of our loved one, my big brother, David. Oh how I wish I could see him again, as I know I will see him in heaven. He's celebrating with Mama and Daddy, Alice, Lamar and Stanley. He had many cousins who loved him dearly, as well as Harold and me. There's only him and me left out of six siblings. We morn his death and are thankful for the lifetime of memories we shared. Life is only a split second in God's plan for us. Blessed be the name of Jesus, and may God hold our own lives in his hands. God bless all David's children, grandchildren, great-grandchild, and his wife. We are to please the Lord and I believe he is smiling upon David right now. Bye, bye brother, I will see you again soon. Love, Cheri Ann 11/15/2009

Posted by: Michelle Underwood I am so sorry for your loss. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. I know this is not an easy time. When I lost my Father I lost a piece of me. Stay strong and keep the faith. Peace will come. 11/14/2009

Posted by: connie tucker blum Pam and Family, My thoughts of sympathy. David and I went through Perry Schools together and fondest memories in sixth grade, he was crossing guard with Sonny Wilson and everyone loved David. This is a shock to everyone. You are in my prayers, Connie 11/13/2009
