

Henry Evans

June 27, 1923 - December 4, 2010

Henry Ford Evans was born in Fort Payne, Alabama on June 27, 1923 to John David Evans and Annabelle Powell Evans. Henry graduated 7th grade with honors but did not finish school, but did not waste his God given talent of hard work and skill. Henry at the age of 18 married a beautiful young Georgia girl named Mildred Cash. In 1945 Mildred gave birth to the first of their three sons. The call to service pulled Henry from his trade, but Uncle Sam saw fit to use Henry where his skill and talent would serve our country best. In 1948 another son was born to Henry and Mildred. Henry could now concentrate on his career. Like most fathers, Henry was involved in raising his children and supporting his wife. This still did not cause Henry to get sidestepped from his goal and mission. Again in 1952 his third and last son was born. After the birth of their third son Henry started traveling all over the eastern part of the U.S. using his talents and skill. He met many craftsman and got to share his dreams and visions together to better the future of all working people. This was a great time in our history to belong and work with other union brothers and sisters. Henry was able to help in history making challenges such as the space program, the building of great buildings, bridges, and tunnels. The age of electrical technology had arrived and the need of organized labor was needed to assure only trained and qualified craftsmen would construct and build this great nation. Henry Ford Evans has been a union member and organizer for over sixty years. He is the oldest living member with more years of membership in Local 613 Atlanta, GA. Henry was a great labor leader and organizer and has created future generations of electricians to follow in his footsteps. Henry will be greatly missed by all of the lives he has touched.

“ Posted by: C Phillips and family Donald, Larry and Kenneth, so sorry to read that your father died. Soon Almighty God will eliminate the cause of all human suffering, including, sickness, old age and death- Revelation 21:4 12/10/2010 Posted by: Deanna Berry Wow. If this was a facebook post, I'd start by making a comment on some of the pettiness that has found it's way into an online memorial guestbook....but it's not...so I won't. What I will say is that I will miss my Papa very much. He was an awesome man who raised another awesome man that I am proud to call my father. The same man, I might add, that took care of Papa and planned the entire funeral pretty much by himself. I'd imagine that was a pretty large task to take on in only a couple of days time. Seems people might be a little less quick to point out a couple of details and a little quicker to thank him for all of his efforts and strength during this process. But alas... Rest in Peace Papa. We love you. 12/09/2010 Posted by: Norene Arnesen I knew Mr. Henry from the Waffle House in Mableton. He was always so nice & sweet to me & my granddaughters. He will be missed.
