

Jimmy Moody

September 21, 1952 - July 26, 2012

Biography Jimmy Larry Moody, age 59, of Marietta passed away on Thursday, July 26, 2012 at his residence in the Summerhill Community. Jimmy was born to Roy Alton Moody and Marvine Brown Moody on September 21, 1952 in Dallas, Georgia. He came into this world in a small town hospital inside of an old house with his father, aunt, and big sister sitting on the front porch in anticipation. While attending high school, he was drafted by the United States Army. Although his mother was concerned for him, but Jimmy wanted to serve his country and left home for the war. After leaving the Army, Jimmy worked as a warehouseman for Progressive Lighting until retiring in 1991. He belonged to Skyview Baptist Church, loved deer hunting, enjoyed listening to country music, and was a fan of the Atlanta Braves. The most important thing in his life however, was his daughter, Kim. Spending time with her was his main goal for the last 10 years of his life. Jimmy made many friends along the way and has several loved ones that will truly miss him, but he has left some wonderful memories for those who he has left behind. Jimmy Larry Moody is preceded in death by his parents, Roy and Marvine Moody. Survivors include his dear friends, Dolores and Eldon Morris of Mableton; daughter, Kimberly Moody of Mableton; sister, Core Lee McCoy and her husband Ray of Acworth; nephew, Earl McClain, Jr. of Woodstock; niece, Tracy Vereb of Hiram; great nephew, Trey; great nieces, Scotie, Skyler, and Meagan; numerous aunts and uncles; and good friends from the Summerhill Community. Jimmy was cremated on Thursday, October 26, 2012 under the care of White Columns Funeral Chapel in Mableton. A memorial service will be held at a later date by his family.
