“ Such a wonderful and amusing lady. It was good sharing time with her through church. I'll always remember her last words as she would exit the bus from church. They were “we got to pray for this government.”

“ John I am so sorry your mother passed away. Wow, she lived a long life. My prayers go out for you and the family. Your parents were truly great people. I am sure your mom is hugging your dad right now.

“ What a wonderful, dear sweet (and entertaining) lady who was our neighbor for all her years in Mableton and a member with us at Mableton FBC. Praises for her life of 104 years. Prayers and Blessings for her family! and thanks for keeping in touch with us when she moved from our neighborhood.

“ Mrs. Thornburg sat behind us at church at Mableton First Baptist. She was always so pleasant. It was great to see someone at her age so eager to be active at church. She was an inspiration to everyone to live your life to the fullest. I will always remember her.
